Consignment Agreement

1. Hi-Hat Resale is a donation/consignment shop operated by the Delnor Hospital Auxiliary and volunteers for the benefit of Delnor Hospital.

2. Hi-Hat Resale accepts items for consignment, with a limit of 12 pieces of clothing and 12 pieces of other merchandise, Tuesday through Thursday from 10:00 a.m. to 12:30 p.m., or by appointment. All items are subject to inspection and pricing by Hi-Hat Resale and some items may be refused for consignment.

3. Hi-Hat Resale accepts donations any time during shop hours. Upon request, a receipt for donated items will be given and the donor must determine value for tax purposes.

4. All items are left at the risk of the donor or consignor. Hi-Hat Resale is not responsible for items lost through fire, theft or other causes, or for reimbursement.

5. Hi-Hat Resale encourages the consignor to provide a suggested retail price for all items at the time of consignment. If merchandise is left for consignment before meeting with Hi-Hat Resale staff, they will set the resale price. Hi-Hat Resale retains final say in setting actual resale price for all items.

6. Consignor agrees to leave the item(s) with Hi-Hat Resale for 60 days (120 days for furniture and art). Proceeds from the sale of the items within 60 or 120 days will be assigned 50% to the consignor and 50% to Hi-Hat Resale. Items which have not sold after the 60 or 120 days may be reduced in price and all sale proceeds will be considered a donation. If the article has not sold after the consignment period, Hi-Hat Resale may donate it for the benefit of a needy cause.

7. Hi-Hat Resale accepts the following categories of women's clothing: coats, dresses, slacks, blouses, sweaters, shoes, formals, and accessories (jewelry, purses, etc.).Hi-Hat Resale accepts the following categories of men's clothing: overcoats, suits, sport coats, slacks, dress shirts, ties, sweaters and athletic wear. All clothing must be clean, pressed, in good repair, seasonal, in style and on hangers.

8. Seasonal schedule for consignment clothing: February 15th to July 15th – Spring & Summer
   August 15th to January 15th – Fall & Winter

9. There will be no privilege of reclaim except by written agreement with Hi-Hat Resale at the time the article is received. Item must have a resale value of at least $50.00.

10. All consignors must register any changes of address and/or contact information promptly.

11. Payment will be made by check and will be mailed by the 15th of each of the following months: January, March, May, July, September and November.

12. All items must have a minimum of $6.00 per item. All items under this will be considered a donation to benefit the community.
